TBA Book Group with Rabbi Kulwin

Thursday, January 5, 7:30 PM

The Two-Family House by Lynda Cohen Loigman

Brooklyn, 1947. Sharing a brownstone, sisters-in-law Rose and Helen raise their families side by side, a proximity strengthening the weakening bonds between them. Intrigue, mistrust and insights into family (and Jewish family) dynamics play roles in this study of a memorable place and time in American Jewish history. The TBA Book Group is free and open to the community. Register online or call 973.994.2290.

Learner's Minyan

Join Rabbi Dantowitz and Morah Melissa Weiner for a Learning Service for adults seeking a greater understanding or comfort level of Shabbat Services! Come explore the Shabbat Morning Service! This program will take place concurrently with Junior Congregation. Begin to understand the rhythm and order of our prayer service with an opportunity for questions and discussion. No knowledge of Hebrew or prayer is necessary, just a desire to learn. Casual dress. Kiddush brunch included. Saturday, January 7 & February 11, 9:30-11:00 AM

Parashat HaShavuah with Rabbi Kulwin

Parashat HaShavuah, EVERY Saturday morning, at 9:00 AM before Services

Monthly Lunch and Learn with Rabbi Faith Joy Dantowitz: Bring your appetite for learning as well as your dairy lunch! Beverages will be provided! This course is free and open to the community.

Today's Issues Seen Through a Jewish Lens: Judaism's teachings from the past and present offer insight on current topics. Come and explore each month as we learn about matters ranging from organ donation to gender issues to how we treat others and many others. Thursday, January 12, February 16, March 16, April 20 & May 18, 11:30 AM

Rosh Hodesh with Rabbi Faith Joy Dantowitz

The new month, or Rosh Hodesh, has evolved into a women's holiday. TBA's Sisterhood joins together a few times a year to welcome the new month with conversation, learning, spiritual growth, and connection. Join us to welcome the months of Heshvan, Sh'vat, Adar and a Women's Seder in the year 5777!

Tuesday, January 31, February 28 & April 4, 7:30 PM

History through Text with Rabbi Kulwin

History Through Text is a seminar to be offered throughout the year, taught by Rabbi Kulwin. Taught in blocks, each class will also be a stand-alone unit, so that an inability to attend all (or even most) of the sessions will not be an impediment to an enjoyable and simulating learning experience.

Jewish Life In The Middle Ages*      Wednesday, February 1, 8, March 8, 15, 22 and 29, 7:00 PM

We began as a people in Biblical times and the laws that guide us come from the time of the Talmud, some 1,500 years ago. But only after that, in the Middle Ages did our worship, customs and traditions begin to take the form we recognize today. What was it like to be a Jew then? Was there always anti-Semitism? How did they learn their livelihood, what languages did they speak and what was family life like? What special issues did medieval women face? Through a close reading of texts from the period we will explore just what it was like to be a Jew during this pivotal time.

Free for all - RSVP requested: 973-530-3474 or sgordon@jccmetrowest.org

This is a delightful musical comedy about a diverse group of young Israelis who get together to watch Universong, a Eurovision-like television song contest (think America's Got Talent). They spontaneously compose their own song; one member of the group enters their cellphone video in the contest. To everyone's surprise, the song is chosen to represent Israel in the finals competition in Paris. Cupcake is a delicious story that celebrates life, love and loyalty.

Director: Eytan Fox • Country: Israel, 2013 • Language: Hebrew with English subtitles • Running Time: 90 minutes
