Back to The Basics

Congregational learning this year focuses on The Basics, with four special presentations on Jewish History, Theology, Worship and Holidays. The details are too easy to get lost in. We must recognize — in fact, celebrate — the big picture, seeing the common thread that unites every aspect of Jewish life.

Tuesday, January 9, 7:30 PM

Theology – What did our ancestors believe, what do we believe, and how is it all connected? Led by Rabbi Kulwin

Tuesday, February 6, 7:30 PM

Worship – What is the purpose of Jewish Worship and how did it get to be what it is? Led by Cantor Epstein

Tuesday, March 6, 7:30 PM

Holidays – What constitutes a Jewish Holiday and why – if they are – important? Led by Rabbi Dantowitz

State of the Garden State

with Tom Moran of the Star Ledger, Matt Katz of WNYC & Mary Alice Williams of NJTV

This year, on Monday, November 13, at 7:30 PM Temple B’nai Abraham again invites the community to explore The State of the Garden State with our regular journalist panel of Tom Moran, editorial page editor of the Star-Ledger, Matt Katz, New Jersey reporter for WNYC and author of American Governor: Chris Christie’s Bridge to Redemption and Mary Alice Williams, a former national network correspondent and current news anchor of NJTV, New Jersey’s public television network.

What will the November elections mean for the Garden State? These three veteran and prize-winning journalists will gather right after November 7 to sort it all out. Sharing their thoughts and impressions, they will engage with the audience and each other for an insightful, thoughtful, and even humorous evening. Free and open to the community.

Basic Hebrew with Cantor Jessica Epstein

Aleph Isn't Hard!

Have you always wanted to learn the Aleph-Bet and become a Hebrew reader? It isn't hard! Join Cantor Epstein for a 6-part class as we master the letters and vowels. No experience required! A Trope Class will be offered in the Spring, so if you'd like to learn the mitzvah of Torah chanting but can't read, here's where to start! Class minimum of 8. Tuesday, November 7, 14, 21 & 28, 2017, 7:00– 7:45 PM

Monthly Lunch & Learn with Rabbi Dantowitz

Bring your appetite for learning as well as your dairy lunch! Beverages will be provided! This course is free and open to the community. Register online or call 973.994.2290.

Women of the Bible: Supporters, Victims, Leaders, Warriors, Rabble Rousers!

Each month we'll explore women in the Bible (familiar and less-known). Through text-study and discussion, we will delve into themes as old as the Bible and as new as today. A class for women and men!

Thursday, November 16, December 21, January 18, February 15, March 22, April 19 &

May 17, 11:30 AM

Rosh Hodesh with Rabbi Dantowitz, sponsored by Sisterhood

The new moon, or new month is a special holiday that women celebrate together.

Join Sisterhood in a warm atmosphere of sharing, learning and noshing to welcome each new Hebrew month!

Thursday, December 14, 7:30 PM Rosh Hodesh Tevet—Hanukkah

TBA Book Group with Rabbi Kulwin

Forbidden Love in St. Petersburg* by Mishka Ben-David

Thursday, November 2, 7:30 PM

Think Gabriel Alon...if Daniel Silva wrote in Hebrew. Ben-David holds an M.A. in literature from the University of Wisconsin, a Ph.D. from the Hebrew University, and for twelve years was a Mossad agent. His fictional double, Yogev Ben-Ari, moves to Moscow to set up a sleeper cell, but instead ends up sleeping with a beautiful and (of course) mysterious bookstore owner. Ben-Ari tries to figure out who the good guys are and, along the way, demonstrates what happens to Israeli families when someone's a spy.

Mindfulness : An Eight-Week Plan for Finding Peace in a Frantic World led by Karen Frank, TBA Congregational Nurse

Learn how to feel less anxious, and more peaceful and optimistic using mindfulness techniques and meditation in just eight classes. Find out how our being in a default “busy” setting, keeps us from appreciating all that is good in our present lives. Learn techniques that will increase joy and gratitude. A mindfulness practice is accessible to anyone willing to consider that there is another way to respond to stressors and practice 10-20 minutes a day. The class is free for TBA members and is open to the community for a fee. We will be using the book, Mindfulness by Mark Williams and Danny Penman, available on Amazon. Space is limited and the class will fill on a first-come basis. RSVP to Karen Frank, TBA Congregational Nurse, at kfrank@tbanj.org or 862.485.9062.

Wednesdays November 1, 15, 29, December 13, January 3 and 17, from 2:30 to 4:00 PM.

History Through Text with Rabbi Kulwin

History through Text is offered throughout the year by Rabbi Kulwin. Taught in blocks of several weeks, each class will also be a stand-alone unit so that an inability to attend all (or even most) of the sessions will not be an impediment to an enjoyable and simulating learning experience.

The Jewish Religion

When I say “Judaism,” I know what I mean, but is that what you mean when you say it? And are either of those the same as what our forebears meant millennia, centuries, or even just decades and years ago? Ever since Abraham, Judaism has meandered, twisted and turned, met dead ends in back alleys and sped forward on straightaways, constantly (and perhaps inevitably) evolving.

In these sessions, we will explore Judaism has meant at different times and in different places. Hopefully, the course we chart will not only educate us but lead us to a better personal understanding of what Judaism means to us.
