Back to The Basics

Congregational learning this year focuses on The Basics, with four special presentations on Jewish History, Theology, Worship and Holidays. The details are too easy to get lost in. We must recognize — in fact, celebrate — the big picture, seeing the common thread that unites every aspect of Jewish life.

Tuesday, January 9, 7:30 PM
Theology – What did our ancestors believe, what do we believe, and how is it all connected? Led by Rabbi Kulwin

Tuesday, February 6, 7:30 PM
Worship – What is the purpose of Jewish Worship and how did it get to be what it is? Led by Cantor Epstein

Tuesday, March 6, 7:30 PM
Holidays – What constitutes a Jewish Holiday and why – if they are – important? Led by Rabbi Dantowitz

TBA Book Group with Rabbi Kulwin

Moonglow by Michael Chabon
Thursday, December 7, 7:30 PM

A New York Times bestseller on perhaps every “Best of” list of the year, Moonglow, in the words of one reviewer, “revisits an entire era through a single life and collapses a lifetime into a single week.”

The (autobiographical?) narrator visits his dying grandfather and hears stories he’s never heard, from the Jewish slums of prewar South Philadelphia to the invasion of Germany, from a Florida retirement village to New York’s Wallkill prison. Chabon’s earlier books, especially Kavalier and Klay and The Yiddish Policemen’s Union took him to the first rank of American authors. In Moonglow he hasn’t lost his touch.
Monthly Lunch & Learn with Rabbi Dantowitz

Bring your appetite for learning as well as your dairy lunch! Beverages will be provided! This course is free and open to the community. Register online or call 973.994.2290.

Women of the Bible: Supporters, Victims, Leaders, Warriors, Rabble Rousers!

Each month we’ll explore women in the Bible (familiar and less-known). Through text-study and discussion, we will delve into themes as old as the Bible and as new as today. A class for women and men!

Thursday, December 21, January 18, February 15, March 22, April 19 & May 17, 11:30 AM

---

Rosh Hodesh with Rabbi Dantowitz, sponsored by Sisterhood

The new moon, or new month is a special holiday that women celebrate together. Join Sisterhood in a warm atmosphere of sharing, learning and noshing to welcome each new Hebrew month!

Thursday, December 14, 7:30 PM Rosh Hodesh Tevet—Hanukkah

---

Mindfulness : A Plan for Finding Peace in a Frantic World led by Karen Frank, TBA Congregational Nurse

Wednesdays, December 13, January 3 & 17, from 2:30 to 4:00 PM

Learn how to feel less anxious, and more peaceful and optimistic using mindfulness techniques and meditation in just eight classes. Find out how our being in a default “busy” setting, keeps us from appreciating all that is good in our present lives. Learn techniques that will increase joy and gratitude. A mindfulness practice is accessible to anyone willing to consider that there is another way to respond to stressors and practice 10-20 minutes a day.

The class is free for TBA members and is open to the community for a fee. We will be using the book, Mindfulness by Mark Williams and Danny Penman, available on Amazon.

Space is limited and the class will fill on a first-come basis. RSVP to Karen Frank, TBA Congregational Nurse, at kfrank@tbanj.org or 862.485.9062.
History Through Text with Rabbi Kulwin

History through Text is offered throughout the year by Rabbi Kulwin. Taught in blocks of several weeks, each class will also be a stand-alone unit so that an inability to attend all (or even most) of the sessions will not be an impediment to an enjoyable and simulating learning experience.

The Jewish Religion

When I say “Judaism,” I know what I mean, but is that what you mean when you say it? And are either of those the same as what our forebears meant millennia, centuries, or even just decades and years ago? Ever since Abraham, Judaism has meandered, twisted and turned, met dead ends in back alleys and sped forward on straightaways, constantly (and perhaps inevitably) evolving.

In these sessions, we will explore Judaism has meant at different times and in different places. Hopefully, the course we chart will not only educate us but lead us to a better personal understanding of what Judaism means to us.

Judaism of the Bible: Thurs, January 11 & 18, 7:00 PM

Rabbinic Judaism: Thurs, January 25, 7:00 PM

Judaism Before Modernity: Thurs, February 8, 7:00 PM

Liberal Judaism in Germany: Thurs, February 15, 7:00 PM

Liberal Judaism in America: Thurs, April 12, 7:00 PM

Orthodoxy: Thurs, April 19, 7:00 PM

Israeli Judaism: Thurs, May 10, 7:00 PM

It is a traditional duty of Jews to recite Kaddish for a deceased parent, child, spouse, or sibling (daily during the first year, annually thereafter on the anniversary of death). We thank those who have contributed to the Yahrzeit Fund in memory of their loved ones.

May their memories forever be for a blessing...
