

Dear Friends,

As president of Temple B'nai Abraham, I believe that the search process for our next rabbi should be open and take into account the views of as many members of the congregation as possible. In that spirit, I invite you to a Congregational Forum on January 30, immediately following the congregation's Annual Meeting. Everyone present will have the opportunity to share thoughts and views with my fellow officers and me.

The Annual Meeting starts at 7:00 PM. I anticipate that the Forum will begin at approximately 7:30 PM. The snow date will be the next day, January 31.

We want to hear from you, our members, as we move forward. The more of us who participate, the more effective our search will be. Your opinions are vital to the search process and to the temple itself.

Following this Forum, there will be additional opportunities for you to express your views, through other in-person sessions and a congregational survey.

I anticipate appointing a Search Committee Chair shortly after this first forum. Later in the spring, a full committee will be named and subsequently the formal search will begin. As that process goes forward, your input will continue to be important.

If you ever have any concerns or questions, please be in touch with me directly. The temple officers and I look forward to seeing you, and listening to you, on January 30 and beyond.

Thank you,

Bruce H. Greene
President
