

FRIDAY, KABBALAT SHABBAT SERVICES ONSITE

50 people are able to come join us for Kabbalat Shabbat service at the synagogue. This number was decided upon by our task force and takes into account the size of our spacious sanctuary for proper distancing.

For everyone's safety, we are strictly following rules of social distancing, including wearing masks, keeping a minimum of six feet, no congregational singing, and frequent hand sanitizing.

Sign up for services will be first-come, first-served, and only those who successfully reserve a spot either online or call the office 973.994.2290, will be permitted to enter the building. Those who receive a spot will be emailed a brief health questionnaire to be completed and returned by email on Friday by 1:00 PM.

These in-person services will still be streamed on our Facebook page.

We ask that all high-risk individuals remain at home for their own safety.

With the many complexities of these unprecedented times, we reserve the right to suspend our in-person gatherings until it is safe to resume. If the current COVID levels hold or decrease, we are hoping to allow entry for Saturday morning services in the near future.

Thank you all for your rachamim and binah, your compassion and understanding, as we navigate this new frontier together.

TBA BOOK GROUP WITH RABBI VAISBERG VIA ZOOM

The B'nai Abraham Book Group will have engaging, meaningful, and edifying conversations about different books each month.

Book Selections Fall 2020

Wednesdays, 7:30 PM with Rabbi Vaisberg, via Zoom

November 11 – Kaddish.com by Nathan Englander

Summary: Larry is an atheist in a family of orthodox Memphis Jews. When his father dies, it is his responsibility as the surviving son to recite the Kaddish, the Jewish prayer for the dead, every day for eleven months. To the horror and dismay of his mother and sisters, Larry refuses—thus imperiling the fate of his father’s soul. To appease them, and in penance for failing to mourn his father correctly, he hatches an ingenious if cynical plan, hiring a stranger through a website called kaddish.com to recite the daily prayer and shepherd his father’s soul safely to rest.

Author: Nathan Englander is a Jewish-American author born in Long Island, NY in 1970. He wrote the short story collection, For the Relief of Unbearable Urges, published by Alfred A. Knopf, Inc., in 1999. The volume won widespread critical acclaim, earning Englander the 2000 PEN/Faulkner Malamud Award and the American Academy of Arts and Letters Sue Kauffman Prize, and established him as an important writer of fiction.

December 9 – Homesick by Eshkol Nevo

Summary: This heart-warming, charming and clever first novel dips into the lives of each of the inhabitants of a village in Israel. We meet Noa and Amir, a student couple, who have decided to move in together in a village in the hills, midway between Jerusalem and Tel Aviv, where they each work. There is Yotam, the younger brother left behind, forgotten by his parents, who are grieving for their eldest son who was killed in Lebanon turns to Amir for support family. Another character is Saddiq, who watches the house from which his family was driven by the Jews when he was a boy, and to which his mother still has a rusty key. Despite friendships that develop and lives that become entwined, tensions among this melting pot of characters seem to be rising to the surface. This enchanting and irresistible novel offers us windows into the characters’ lives. Homesick is a beautiful and moving story about history, love, family and the true meaning of home.

Author: Eshkol Nevo was born in Jerusalem in 1971. He studied copywriting at the Tirza Granot School and psychology at Tel Aviv University. Today, Nevo owns and co-manages the largest private creative writing school in Israel and is considered the “godfather” of many upcoming young Israeli writers. He has published novels, short stories and nonfiction. His novels have all been top bestsellers.

Talmud with Max Edwards, Rabbinical Assistant

Moses in Midrash: Talmudic Tales of a Prophet Like None Other

Not to be outdone by the towering and inspiring portrayal of Moses in the Torah, the rabbis in the early rabbinic period take his character to far off and captivating places that our biblical source text wouldn't believe. Join us for an in-depth, extended look at Moses through the eyes of our rabbinic sages. In this class, we'll spend time reacquainting ourselves with the biblical Moses, and with these tools, explore the rabbinic expansions of his character.

Ever wonder what life was like growing up in Pharaoh's court? What really happened during the episode of the golden calf? Did Moses ever time travel? (Yes, of course. )No prior knowledge of Torah or Hebrew required – all are welcome to join as we rediscover a prophet like none other.

Thursdays, 11:00 AM-12:15 PM via Zoom

October 15, October 29, November 12, November 19, December 3 and December 17

The Hebrew Bible, Line by Line with Rabbi Vaisberg and Max Edwards

The Hebrew Bible is more than just our sacred text— it is the foundational document of Western Civilization and a source of meaning for so many. We will explore and discover the Hebrew Bible in its entirety, starting from the first line of Genesis and working our way, for as long as we need to, until the end of 2 Chronicles. We will use parallel English and Hebrew texts and bring in commentaries ancient and contemporary to enhance our explorations. All are welcome.

Mondays at 9:30 AM, starting October 19 via Zoom

Rosh Hodesh is the celebration of the new Hebrew month and is a special time for women. Sisterhood—The Women's Connection welcomes all women to join in an evening of learning, warmth, and spiritual growth. Join us each or any month and feel the sisterhood connection.

Tuesday, October 20, 7:30 PM via Zoom – Featuring Rabbi Jill Hammer speaking on Hebrew Priestesses

Rabbi Jill Hammer, PhD, is the co-founder of the Kohenet Hebrew Priestess Institute and the Director of Spiritual Education at the Academy for Jewish Religion. She serves as core faculty for the AOP Earth-Based Judaism Track. She is the author of The Jewish Book of Days: A Companion for all Seasons, The Omer Calendar of Biblical Women, The Hebrew Priestess: Ancient and New Visions of Jewish Women's Spiritual Leadership (with Taya Shere), Siddur haKohanot: A Hebrew Priestess Prayerbook (with Taya Shere) and The Book of Earth and Other Mysteries. Her forthcoming book is titled Return to the Place: The Magic, Meditation, and Mystery of Sefer Yetzirah. She is a poet, scholar, ritualist, dreamworker, and essayist.
