On the fourth Sunday each month, the Social Action Committee joins our partners, the NAACP of the Oranges and Maplewood and Elmwood United Presbyterian Church, in Café 5000, an effort in which we gather at the church to serve a hot meal to the needy population in the area. Taking part is lovely and gratifying and a genuine mitzvah.

We'd love you to get involved. In advance of each of "our" days we distribute a signup sheet offering various ways to help, like preparing main courses, side dishes or desserts in advance, purchasing Shoprite gift cards, setting up for the midday meal, serving, and cleaning up after the meal. (Children at least 6 years old are welcome as long as a parent is with them.)

Want to help? Let us know and we'll put you on the list to receive the signup sheet. We look forward to working together! Please contact TBA's Café 5000 coordinator, Michelle Greenberg at michgreenb@yahoo.com. The on-site commitment is only from 12:15-2:30PM on the 4th Sunday of each month and is located at the Elmwood Church in East Orange, about 15 minutes from our area.

ORGANIC BLUEBERRY SALE A GREAT SUCCESS!

The Social Action Committee of Temple B'nai Abraham recently offered congregants the opportunity to purchase fresh, organic, and locally grown blueberries delivered right to the temple through Farmhouse Fruit. Each purchase included USDA Certified Organically Grown New Jersey Blueberries, grown by Big Buck Farms located in Hammonton, NJ, known as the "Blueberry Capital of the World."

Pictured happily picking up their flats of organic blueberries are (l-r) Saul Berkowitz, SAC Co-Chair Lori Kudish with Rabbi Faith Joy Dantowitz and Bob Singer.

All Jewish History in One Hour...Really!

With Professor David N. Myers, President, Center for Jewish History,
Sadie and Ludwig Kahn Chair in Jewish History, UCLA

Wednesday, September 6, 7:30 PM

Professor David Myers returns this fall to discuss his just-published Jewish History, part of the prestigious Oxford University Press "A Very Short Introduction" series. A scant hundred pages, Myers' thought provoking book, in the words of one reviewer, accomplishes "a concise but rich distillation of the Jewish historical past from its beginnings to the present." In one hour, Myers does the same in lecture form, taking us on a speedy but substantial journey, allowing us to perceive our history as one, distinct, organic whole. Don't think it's possible? Come see. And learn. Myers, a favorite and frequent TBA speaker, has taught at UCLA for twenty-five years, where he directed the Center for Jewish Studies and served as chair of the Department of History. This summer he was named President of the Center for Jewish History in New York City, one of the world's leading repositories of Jewish history. While Myers has authored five books and innumerable scholarly and popular articles and reviews, and has taught, lectured and conducted research around the world, his most cherished achievement is having been Rabbi Kulwin's roommate while both were graduate students at Columbia University. Copies of Jewish History will be available for purchase and to be signed.

To register contact the temple office at 973.994.2290.
