The sun on the treetops no longer is seen;
Come, gather to welcome the Sabbath, our Queen!
Behold her descending, the holy, the blest,
And with her the angels, of peace and of rest.
Draw near, O Queen, and here abide;
Draw near, draw near, O Sabbath bride.
Peace be unto you, angels of peace.

KABBALAT SHABBAT
LEHÀ DODI

Come, my friend, the Bride to meet,
The holy Shabbat let us now greet.

“Keep” and “Remember” in one Divine word,
Our people at Sinai God’s command heard.
Our God is one; and One is God’s name,
God’s is the glory! God’s is the fame!

To greet Shabbat now let us go;
Source of blessing, it has ever been so.
Conceived before life on earth began,
Last in God’s work, first in God’s plan.

Yerushalayim, shrine of our “King,”
Arise from your ruins, arise and sing.
Enough have you dwelled in the vale of tears,
Your God will mercifully dispel your fears.

Shake off your dust, arise from the mire;
Dress, my people, in your proudest attire.
Through a descendant of David, the poet-king,
Redemption and freedom God will bring.
לכָּה דּוֹדִי, ילֹּקָרָה כֵּלָה. כּּּי שֵׁם גֵּבֵּלָה.

KABBALAT SHABBAT [40]
Arise, arise, for your light has come,
The dawn has broken, the night is gone
Awake, awake, and joyously sing;
Heavenly glory to you God did bring.

Be not ashamed, be not distressed,
No longer bowed down like a city oppressed.
In you shall your children’s hopes be fulfilled;
Out of your ashes you will again be rebuilt.

They who despoiled you will themselves be despoiled,
Your foes will be routed, their plots will be foiled.
In you will your God find joy and pride,
Loving you as a bridegroom loves his bride.

In every way may you prosper and grow;
Reverence for God may you ever know.
May you see the redemption that God will bring;
Songs of thanksgiving to God may you sing.

Come now, Shabbat, the day divine,
Come in joy, let your brightness shine.
Come to the people which greets you with pride,
Come in peace, Shabbat bride.

[41] "WELCOMING SHABBAT": A Preliminary Service
Life, faith, and remembrance

To us, O Lord of life, You have entrusted Your spirit, Fashioning us in Your image, and granting us Your gifts:

    The power to create, the will to perfect,
    The ability to dream, the capacity to love.

These are among Your priceless gifts to Your children, To be used wisely on our earthly journey.

    At journey’s end, our souls return
    To You, O God, Source of life and love.

Comfort us, we pray; and deepen our faith That with You each soul is reunited and loved.

    In Your keeping are the souls of the living,
    And the spirits of those who have passed on.

For it is from You that we come, And it is to You that we return.

    Our few years on earth are but a prologue
    To the drama which continues beyond time.

This is the faith which sustains us at this hour As we reaffirm the words of the Psalmist:

    “Into Your hand we entrust our spirits,
    You will redeem us, O Lord, God of truth.”

A HERITAGE OF MEMORIES

May the memories which we cherish And lovingly now recall Inspire us so to live That we too may bequeath A heritage of precious memories To those whom we shall leave behind.

In tribute to our departed May we enrich the lives we touch. May we share and preserve the faith Which our mourners will now affirm, As they rise to sanctify God’s name In the hallowed words of the Kaddish.

MAARIV / SHABBAT & REGALIM
I

Eternal God, who sends consolation to all sorrowing hearts, we turn to You for solace in our trying hour. Though bowed in grief at the passing of our loved ones, we reaffirm our faith in You. Help us, O Lord, to rise above our sorrow and to face the trials of life with courage. Give us insight in our time of grief, so that from the depths of our own suffering may come a deepened sympathy for all who are bereaved. May we feel the heartbreak of others and find our strength in helping them. May we bear our sorrow with trustful hearts, and knowing You are near, may we not despair. With faith in Your sustaining love, those who mourn now rise to sanctify Your name.

II

Almighty and Eternal God, in adversity as in joy, You are ever with us. As we recall with affection those who have been taken from our midst, we thank You for the example of their lives, for our years of companionship with them, for the cherished memories and the undying inspiration which they leave behind. Comfort, we pray, all who mourn. Give them strength in their sorrow, and sustain their faith. In tribute to our departed, may our lives be consecrated to Your service. In solemn testimony to that unbroken faith which links the generations one to another, those who mourn now rise to sanctify Your holy name.

(M.S.—a.)

III

Eternal God, source of consolation and healing, Your children's hearts are turned to You, in this hour of grief and remembrance. Grant strength, O Lord, to all who mourn; sustain them in their sorrow. Help them to face the future with confidence and hope, even as they continue to honor the souls of their loved ones. As we recall those taken from our midst, we offer our thanks—for the years which we shared, for the companionship which we enjoyed, for the love which we knew, and for the memories which we now treasure. May we create living memorials to our departed through acts of kindness, of compassion, and of loyalty. May all who mourn today find comfort in Your unfailing love, as they now rise to recite the hallowed words of the Kaddish.

MAARIV ARAVIM: Lord of night and day

Praised are You, Lord our God, Ruler of the universe,
Whose word brings on the dusk of evening.
Your wisdom opens the gates of dawn;
Your understanding regulates time and seasons.

The stars above follow their appointed rounds,
In response to Your divine will.

You create day and night;
You alternate darkness and light.
You remove the day and bring on the night;
You separate one from the other.

We call You "Lord of heavenly hosts";
You are our living God.

May You rule over us as You rule over nature;
Praised are You, O Lord, who brings the evening dusk.

O Lord, Your word brings on the evening twilight;
The heavens proclaim Your glory;
And we, Your creatures on earth,
Behold in wonder Your endless miracles.

Help us to recognize Your guiding power
In distant galaxies and in our own souls.
Teach us Your law of righteousness and love,
So that Your spirit may govern our lives.

Source of peace, bless our worship;
May our meditations find favor in Your sight.
May our gratitude for Your wonders
Lead us, in love, to Your service,

So that, like the changing seasons, the days, the nights,
Our lives, too, will proclaim Your glory. Amen.

TO BE REMINDED

The Shema is often called “the best-known prayer of Judaism;”
yet it makes no request of God. Rather, it affirms that God is One.
Its recital is not needed by God—who needs no reminder of the Divine Unity. It is needed by us; we must be reminded that God is One.
It is we who must be reminded that only God is to be worshiped; or else we might worship idols, or power, or wealth, or prestige, or any of the other false gods—which can claim people today as easily as they did three thousand years ago.

To worship something means to devote all that one possesses, all of one’s talents and energies, to this end.
Thus, a person who worships power may sacrifice honor for power, may neglect family for power, or may destroy character for power.
Thrice daily we recite the Shema, so that we may be reminded that there is but One God, to whom we should be totally devoted.

(Based on F. M. Isserman, A.N.S.)
AHAVAT OLAM—Signs of God’s love: Torah and Mitzvot

With everlasting love You have loved the House of Israel,
Teaching us Your Torah, its Mitzvot, laws, and judgments.
Therefore, when we lie down and when we rise up,
We shall speak of Your Commandments,
And rejoice forever in Your Torah and in Your Mitzvot.

For they are our life and the length of our days;
On them we will meditate day and night.

May Your love never depart from us!
Praised are You, O Lord,
Bestower of love upon Your people Israel.

WITH EVERLASTING LOVE

Before the Shema we are reminded of God’s “everlasting love” for us. After the Shema (in V’ahavta), it is we who are called upon to love God.

God’s love came first. Because of this love, God endowed us with the capacity to love—and gave us the Torah, the ultimate gift of love.

Through the Torah, we have found the purpose for which to live, and the strength and inspiration with which to live.

Morning and night, our prayers remind us of God’s love, so that we may be moved to “love the Lord,” and let the spirit of Torah guide our lives.

A PRELUDE TO THE SHEMA

The six Hebrew words which constitute the Shema are the first words of prayer which we are called upon to teach our children. They are the last words to be uttered at life’s end.

Each time we recite the Shema, we declare our belief in the One, invisible, and incomparable God.

Each time we recite the Shema, we take upon ourselves the obligation to love God with all our hearts, minds, and souls—and to live faithfully in accordance with God’s commandments.

Each time we recite the Shema, we link ourselves to countless generations of Jews who steadfastly recited these sacred words; and we recall those who uttered these words as they prepared to surrender life itself rather than embrace an alien faith.

Each time we recite the Shema, we reaffirm that One God is the Parent of us all; and that all of God’s children are related by a bond which transcends differences of origin or belief.

Each time we recite the Shema, we proclaim our creed, and hear a call for noble living, in the presence of the Lord, our God.

MAARIV / SHABBAT & REGALIM [54]
The Shema

Hear, O Israel: the Lord is our God, the Lord is One.

Praised be God's glorious sovereignty for ever and ever.

V'AHAVTA: You shall love the Lord

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your might. You shall take to heart these words which I command you this day. You shall teach them diligently to your children, speaking of them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down at night and when you rise up in the morning. You shall bind them as a sign upon your arm, and they shall be a reminder above your eyes. You shall inscribe them on the doorposts of your homes and on your gates.

Deuteronomy 6:4-9

THE SHEMA: A call to witness

In the Torah scroll, the word “Sh'ma” is written with an enlarged final ayin (י); and the word “Ehad” with an enlarged final daled (ד). These two letters form the Hebrew word יד (Eydi) which means “witness.”

Whenever we recite the Sh'ma, we are responding to the Divine call: Atem Eydai, “You are My witnesses” (Isaiah 43:10); and we are reminded of our vocation to be God’s “witnesses”—in both our personal and collective lives.

(Ben Soul)

V'AHAVTA: You shall love the Lord

Whether a person really loves God can be determined by the love which that person bears toward others.

(Levi Yitzhak of Berditchev)

V'AHAVTA: Love leading to action

In Judaism, love of God is never a mere feeling; it belongs to the sphere of ethical action.

(Leo Baeck)
Do not be like servants who serve their master for the sake of receiving a reward; be rather like servants who devotedly serve their master with no thought of a reward; and may the awe of God be upon you.

(Pirkey Avot 1:3)

The reward for a good deed is another good deed; and the penalty for a transgression is another transgression.

(Pirkey Avot 4:2)

If you think of reward, you think of yourself, not God.

(Solanter)

The main purpose of the Mitzvot performed through physical action is to make us sensitive to those Mitzvot performed with the heart and mind, which are the pillars of the service of God.

(Bohya)
KEEP THESE WORDS

If you will faithfully obey the commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God and to serve the Lord with all your heart and all your soul, then I will favor your land with rain at the proper season, in autumn and in spring; and you will harvest your grain and wine and oil. I will give grass in the fields for your cattle. You will eat and be satisfied.

Take care not to be lured away to worship other gods. For then the wrath of the Lord will be directed against you: The heavens will close and there will be no rain; the earth will not yield its produce; and you will soon perish from the good land which the Lord gave you.

Therefore, keep these words of Mine in your heart and in your soul. Bind them as a sign upon your arm, and let them be a reminder above your eyes. Teach them to your children, speaking of them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down at night and when you rise up in the morning. Write them upon the doorposts of your homes and upon your gates. Thus your days and the days of your children will be multiplied on the land which the Lord promised to your ancestors for as long as the heavens remain over the earth.

Deuteronomy 11:13-21

It is not enough to serve God in anticipation of future reward. One must do right and avoid wrong because as a human being one is obliged to seek perfection.
(Maimonides)

Rejoice so greatly in performing a Mitzvah that you will desire no other reward than the opportunity to perform another Mitzvah!
(Nahman of Bratslav)

Rav Aha said: God has made uncertain the reward of those who perform the commandments of the Torah so that we might perform them in fidelity.
(Talmud Yerushalmi, Peah)

[57] EVENING SERVICE / SABBATH & FESTIVALS
DELIBERANCE FROM PERIL  (A Prelude to Emet Vemunah)

We acknowledge that there is but one universal God, and that to God’s service Israel stands eternally committed.

We recognize in God the Power that has enabled us to triumph over defeat, persecution, and oppression.

It was God who redeemed us from Egyptian bondage, and delivered us from the despotism of the Pharaohs;

For God wills that we be free to use our powers for worthy ends, unfettered by the arbitrary rule of any mortal.

Whenever human tyrants usurp Divine authority, oppressing or exploiting others,

The hardening of their hearts proves their own undoing; their unrelenting arrogance writes their doom.

Therefore we will not be discouraged or dismayed, when unrighteous powers rise up against us.

Though enemy hosts pursue us, we shall remember how our ancestors were saved at the Sea.

We shall recall, in every age, the words of triumph with which they gave thanks for their deliverance from peril.

(M. M. Kaplan, adapted)

MAARIV / SHABBAT & REGALIM  [58]
TO SEE, TO REMEMBER, AND TO OBSERVE!

The Lord said to Moses: “Speak to the Children of Israel, and bid them to make fringes in the corners of their garments throughout their generations, putting upon the fringe of each corner a thread of blue.

“When you look upon the fringe you will be reminded of all the commandments of the Lord and obey them. You will not be led astray by the inclination of your heart or by the attraction of your eyes.

“Thus will you be reminded to fulfill all My commandments and be consecrated to your God. I am the Lord your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God. I, the Lord, am your God.”

(Numbers 15:37-41)

A CHORUS OF HOPE AND THANKSGIVING
(A Prelude to Emet V’emunah)

The truth which we affirm is that our God is One,
and that the incomparable Holy One redeems us in every age.

God delivered us from bondage,
from tyrannies, old and new,
enabling us to sing our praise
on the shores of many lands.

The Lord has ever been our hope,
our strength in times of woe;
saving our people from despair,
from disaster, and confusion.

God’s wonders we behold each day;
God’s redemption we await each night.
God’s guidance is still with us now,
as it was in years long passed.

We praise the Lord in words of song which echo from ancient times, joining memories of deliverance
with a chorus of hope and thanksgiving.

MAARIV / SHABBAT & REGALIM [60]
EMET VE-EMUNAH: God our Redeemer

True and certain it is that there is One God, Incomparable, And that we, the Household of Israel, are God's people.

It is God who redeemed us from the might of tyrants, Delivering us from slavery unto freedom.

Great are the things which God has done, With wonders which are without number,

Delivering our ancestors from Egyptian bondage, Inspiring hope and faith in every generation.

May God continue to protect our people, And guard all humankind from disaster.

When the Children of Israel beheld God's might, They gave thanks and praised the Divine Name.

They accepted God's sovereignty willingly And sang in joyous thanksgiving.

Moses and the Children of Israel Proclaimed in great exultation—

"Who is like You, O Lord, among the mighty? Who is like You, glorious in holiness, Revered in praises, doing wonders?"

When You rescued the Israelites at the Sea, Your children beheld Your majesty and power.

"This is my God!" they exclaimed, and said: "The Lord shall reign for ever and ever!"

As You delivered the Children of Israel from a mightier power, So may You redeem all Your children from oppression.

Praised are You, O Lord, Redeemer of Israel.

[61] EVENING SERVICE / SABBATH & FESTIVALS
TO LIE DOWN IN PEACE

Help us, O God, to lie down in peace,
And protect us, with Your love, as we sleep.
Lighten our burdens and soften our hurts;
Restore our bodies and refresh our souls.
May we rest secure and untroubled,
And arise with confidence to the challenges of a new day.
O Guardian of Israel, who neither slumbers nor sleeps,
Shelter us, and our people, in Your tabernacle of peace.

YOUR TABERNACLE OF PEACE

Spread Your tabernacle of peace, O Lord,
Over us and our people, we pray;
Bless all who tonight are in our prayers,
And all who should be in our thoughts—
To the sick and the suffering, send Your hope;
To the forgotten and the lonely, send Your love.
To the confused and the distressed, send Your light;
To the weary and the wronged, send renewed strength.
To the pursuers of justice, send wisdom and faith;
To the seekers of peace, send unwavering resolve.
To Jerusalem and its people, send tranquility and joy;
To the world tonight, send the blessings of peace.

(Ben Saul)
HASHKIVENU: Help us to lie down in peace
Help us, O God, to lie down in peace;
And awaken us to life on the morrow.
May we always be guided by Your good counsel,
And thus find shelter in Your tabernacle of peace.
Shield us, we pray, against our foes,
Against disease, destruction, and sorrow.
Strengthen us against the forces of evil
Which abound on every side.
May we always sense Your loving care;
For You are our merciful God and Sovereign.
Guard us always and everywhere;
Bless us with life and peace.
Praise to You, O God of peace,
Whose love is always with us,
Who shelters Your people Israel,
And protects Jerusalem in love.

PEACE MEANS MORE THAN QUIET
Help us, O God, to lie down in peace;
But teach us that peace means more than quiet.
Remind us that if we are to be at peace at night,
We must take heed how we live by day.
Grant us the peace that comes from honest dealing,
So that no fear of discovery will haunt our sleep.
Rid us of resentments and hatreds
Which rob us of the peace we crave.
Liberate us from enslaving habits
Which disturb us and give us no rest.
May we inflict no pain, bring no shame,
And seek no profit from another’s loss.
May we so live that we can face the world
With serenity and with grace.
May we feel no remorse at night
For what we have done during the day.
May we lie down in peace tonight,
And awaken tomorrow to a richer and fuller life.

SHABBAT HAS KEPT US ALIVE

TO MEET GOD IN PRAYER

Any kind of injustice, corruption, or cruelty, desecrates the very essence of the prayer adventure, since it encases one in an ugly little world into which God is unwilling to enter. If one craves to meet God in prayer, then one must purge oneself of all that separates us from God.

MAARIV LE-SHABBAT / INTERPRETIVE AMIDAH BLESSINGS [69]
Amidah for Shabbat Evening: Interpretive Opening Blessings

"O Lord, open my lips that my mouth may declare Your praise."

GOD OF ALL GENERATIONS
Praised are You, O Lord our God and God of our ancestors, God of Abraham, God of Isaac, and God of Jacob, God of Sarah, God of Rebecca, God of Rachel, and God of Leah, Great, mighty, and exalted One—You bestow lovingkindness upon all Your children.
You remember the merits of our ancestors, And lovingly offer redemption to their descendants, In accordance with Your great name.

On Shabbat Shuvah add:
Remember us for life, O Sovereign who delights in life;
Inscribe us in the book of life, for Your sake, O God of life.

You are our Sovereign and Helper, our Savior and Protector.
Praised are You, O Lord, Shield of Abraham and Sustainer of Sarah.

SOURCE OF LIFE AND MASTER OF NATURE
Eternal is Your power, O Lord;
Your salvation embraces the living and the dead.

From Shemini Atzeret to Pesah add:
You cause the wind to blow and the rain to fall.
In lovingkindness You sustain the living;
Your mercies confer life upon the departed.
You uphold the falling, heal the sick, and free the captives;
You keep faith with Your children, even in death.
Who is like You, incomparable Lord of mighty deeds,
Ruler of life and death, Source of redemption?

On Shabbat Shuvah add:
Who is like You, compassionate God?
Mercifully You remember Your creatures for life.
Praised are You, O Lord, who grants to the departed eternal life.

ON THE INTERPRETIVE OPENING BLESSINGS
While preserving most of the imagery and language of the traditional Amidah Opening Blessings, the "Interpretive Version" employs more inclusive references to our Ancestors (both Patriarchs and Matriarchs), while offering, as an alternative option, the Hebrew word "Geulah" (Redemption), a term which lends itself to broad interpretation.

MAARIV / AMIDAH LE-SHABBAT
SANCTIFYING GOD'S NAME

Holy are You and hallowed is Your name, and holy ones praise You daily. Praised are You, O Lord, *the holy God.

SANCTIFYING THE SABBATH

You consecrated the seventh day as Your own, for it marked the end and purpose of the creation of heaven and earth. You blessed it above all the other days and hallowed it above all the Festivals, as it is written in Your Torah:

"The heavens and the earth, and all within them, were finished. By the seventh day God had completed the work of Creation; and so God rested from all this work. Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it because on it God ceased all the Divine work of Creation."

RETZEY VI-M'NUHATEYNU: Accept our rest, and purify our hearts

Our God and God of our ancestors, may our Shabbat rest be acceptable to You.

May Your Mitzvot lead us to holiness, and may we be among those who devote themselves to Your Torah.

May we find contentment in Your blessings, and joy in Your sustaining power.

Purify our hearts to serve You in truth, and help us to enjoy, in love and favor, the heritage of Your holy Shabbat.

May Your people Israel, who hallow Your name, find rest on this day. Praised are You, O Lord, who hallows the Shabbat.

ACCEPT OUR PRAYER AND BLESS ZION

Be gracious to Your people Israel, O Lord our God, and lovingly accept their prayers. May our worship ever be acceptable to You.

*On Shabbat Shuvah: the holy Sovereign.

[71] SABBATH EVE AMIDAH
On Rosh Hodesh and Hol Hamoed:

On Hanukkah:

וכם יעקב. ושלום עליכם. ושלום עליכם. ושלום עליכם. ושלום עליכם. ושלום עליכם. ושלום עליכם.
On Rosh Ḥodesh and Intermediate Days of Festivals add:

Our God and God of our ancestors, we recall and invoke the remembrance of our ancestors, the piety of their prayers for Messianic deliverance, the glory of Jerusalem, Your holy city, and the destiny of the entire Household of Israel. As we seek Your love and mercy, we pray for deliverance and for life, for happiness and for peace, on this day of Remember us, O Lord; bless us with all that is good. Recall Your promise of merciful redemption; spare us, have compassion upon us, and graciously save us. To You we lift our eyes in hope; for You, our Sovereign, are a gracious and merciful God.

May our eyes behold Your merciful return to Zion. Praise to You, O Lord, who restores the Divine Presence to Zion.

THANKSGIVING FOR DAILY MIRACLES

We thankfully acknowledge You, our God and God of our ancestors, Lord of eternity. You are the source of our strength, even as You have been our protecting shield in every generation.

We thank You and proclaim Your praise for our lives which are in Your hand, for our souls which are in Your care, for Your miracles which are daily with us, and for Your wondrous kindness at all times—morning, noon, and night. Source of all goodness, Your mercies never fail. Source of compassion, Your kindesses never cease. You are our abiding hope.

On Hanukkah add: We thank You, O God, for the miraculous liberation, the mighty deliverance, and the heroic victories which You helped our ancestors to achieve, in ancient days at this season.

In the days of the High Priest Mattathias, son of Yoḥanan of the Hasmonean family, a cruel power rose up against Your people Israel, to make them forsake Your Torah and to transgress Your statutes.

In Your abundant mercy, You stood by Your people in their time of distress. You championed their cause, vindicated their rights, and avenged their suffering. You delivered the strong into the hands of the weak, the many into the hands of the few, the impure into the hands of the pure, the wicked into the hands of the just, and the arrogant into the hands of those devoted to Your Torah.

Thus You revealed Your glory and holiness to the world, while bringing a mighty deliverance to Your people Israel.

Then Your children came into Your Temple, purified Your Sanctuary, kindled lights in Your sacred courts, and established these eight days of Hanukkah in gratitude and praise.

GUARD MY TONGUE . . .

Our Sages denounced the sin of slander and malicious gossip as a loathsome moral disease. They taught that “leshon ha-ra” (evil speech) kills three people: the person who speaks it, the person who listens to it, and the person about whom it is spoken.

According to one authority, a person who spreads evil gossip is as blameworthy as one who has violated all five books of the Torah.

Jewish tradition repeatedly underscores the Biblical teaching that life itself is “in the power of the tongue” (see Proverbs 18:21).

Words possess awesome power—for good and for evil. Therefore we pray three times each day: “O Lord, guard my tongue from evil!”
GUARD MY TONGUE FROM EVIL

O Lord,
Guard my tongue from evil and my lips from speaking guile;
And to those who slander me, let me give no heed.
May my soul be humble and forgiving to all.
Open my heart, O Lord, to Your sacred Law,
That Your statutes I may know and all Your truths pursue.
Frustrate the designs of those who seek to do me ill;
Speedily defeat their aims and thwart their purposes—
For the sake of Your glory and Your power,
For the sake of Your holiness and Law.
That Your loved ones may be delivered, O Lord,
Answer me and save with Your redeeming power.

“May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
Be acceptable to You, O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer.”
O Source of peace and harmony in the universe,
Grant peace to us and to the Household of Israel.

Amen.

Adapted from the Hebrew by Morris Silverman

AN INTERPRETIVE ELOHAI NETZOR

O Lord, guard my tongue from evil
And my lips from speaking guile;
Guard my heart from hatred
And my mind from harmful thoughts.
Help me to avoid shameful speech
As well as shameful silence.
May my words be messengers of Your will,
Humble in spirit, helpful in purpose,
Seeking justice, and pursuing peace.
O Lord, guard my spirit from weakness;
And my soul from gloom or despair.
Strengthen my worthy desires
That I may serve You, in joy, every day;
Thus may I reflect honor on Your holy name
In all that I say and do.

Ben Saul
O Lord, whom our ancestors called “Maker of peace in the heavens,” be with us and bless us in our quest for peace.

Help us, O Source of Peace, to find true peace—
in our own lives and with our neighbors;
but keep us from a “peace” of complacency,
or a quiet of false security.

Help us, O Source of Peace, to labor for peace—in our community and in our nation;
but keep us loyal to our convictions
as we seek to reach out to others.

Help us, O Source of Peace, to strengthen the hands of those who work for peace in our troubled world;
but strengthen too our devotion to freedom and our dedication to justice for all Your children.

Help us to welcome truth from whatever source,
and to sustain hopeful spirits at all times.
Keep us from being prisoners of precedent or hostages of habit—in thought or deed.

As You have taught us, the House of Israel, to “love peace and pursue it,”
grant us, we pray, the blessing of Sabbath peace.

Oseh shalom . . .

OUR SHARE IN CREATION

When creating the world, God deliberately made everything a bit incomplete. Instead of making bread grow out of the earth, God made wheat grow, so that we might bake it into bread. Instead of making the earth of bricks, God made it of clay, so that we might bake the clay into bricks. Why? So that we could become God’s partners in Creation.

From the Midrash (adapted)

TO GUARD THE WORLD

After creating Adam, God showed him all the trees in the garden of Eden and said, “See how beautiful and perfect are My works! All that I have created, I have created for you. Therefore, be ever-mindful: Do not abuse or desolate My world. For if you abuse or desolate it, there in no one to repair it after you.”

Midrash Eclesiastes Rabba 7:29

MIRACLES

The world is full of wonders and miracles; but we take our hands, and cover our eyes, and see nothing.

Israel Beul Shem Tov
VAY’HULU: God blessed the seventh day

The heavens and the earth, and all within them, were finished. By the seventh day God had completed the work of Creation. And so God rested from all this work. Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, For on it God ceased all the Divine work of Creation.

Genesis 2:3

THE GLORY OF CREATION

O Lord, our Lord,
How glorious is Your name in all the earth,
Whose majesty is proclaimed above the heavens.

When I behold Your heavens, the work of Your fingers,
The moon and the stars, which You have established;

What are we, that You are mindful of us,
Mere mortals, that You take account of us?

Yet You have made us but little lower than the angels,
And have crowned us with glory and honor.

You have given us dominion over the works of Your hands;
You have put all things at our feet:
Sheep and oxen, all of them, and the beasts of the field;
The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea;
Whatever travels the paths of the seas.

O Lord, our Lord,
How glorious is Your name in all the earth!

You alone are the holy God;
You give rest to Your people on Your holy Shabbat,
Because You take delight in them.

Help us to worship You in reverence and awe,
And to give thanks to You every day.

From You all blessings flow;
To You all praise is due.

You are the Lord of peace,
Who hallows the Shabbat
And blesses the seventh day,

Giving to Your people the delights of Shabbat rest,
A joyful commemoration of Creation.

MAY YOUR WORD SHIELD US TOO

O God, whose word was a shield to our ancestors, speak to us again, in our own day, words which will shield us too.
When we are burdened with sorrow, shield us from despair with Your word of comfort.
When we are riddled by doubt, shield us from cynicism with Your word of faith.
When we are disappointed or despondent, shield us from depression with Your word of hope.
When we are bitter or angry, shield us from consuming hatred with
Your word of love.
When we are overwhelmed by our adversaries, shield us from

Kiddush for Shabbat Eve

Praised are You, Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, Creator of the fruit of the vine.

Praised are You, Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has taught us the way of holiness through the Mitzvot. Lovingly You have favored us with the gift of Your holy Shabbat as our inheritance, a reminder of Creation, first among the sacred days which recall the Exodus from Egypt.

You have chosen us of all peoples for Your service, and You have given us a sacred purpose in life. In loving favor, You have given us Your holy Shabbat as a heritage.

Praised are You, O Lord, who hallows the Shabbat.

In the Sukkah odd:

Praised are You, Lord our God, Ruler of the universe, who has taught us the way of holiness through the Mitzvot, and ordained that we dwell in the Sukkah.

Between Pesah and Shavuot the Omer is counted. See page 732.

Alenu, page 119.
In the Alenu, we reverently acclaim God as Creator of the universe; we affirm the distinctive character of our People and our Faith; and we pray, with hope, for the salvation of all God's children, looking beyond the idolatries which still abound.

Alenu is thus a quintessential Jewish prayer; for here the voices of the "universal" and the "particular" are joined, in a chorus of faith and hope.
Alenu

Let us now praise the Lord of all;
Let us acclaim the Author of Creation,
Who made us unlike the pagans who surrounded us,
Unlike the heathens of the ancient world,
Who made our heritage different from theirs,
And assigned to us a unique destiny.
We bend the knee and reverently bow
Before the supreme Sovereign,
The Holy One, who is to be praised,
Who spread forth the heavens and established the earth,
And whose glorious presence can be found everywhere.
The Lord is our God; there is no other.
Truly, our sovereign Lord is incomparable.
As it is written in the Torah:
"This day accept, with mind and heart,
That God is the Lord of heaven and earth;
There is no other."

Among the themes which find majestic expression in the Alenu are thanksgiving for the unique religious heritage of the Jewish People, and confident hope for a world transformed, under the sovereignty of our Creator. When the realities of the world (or of our lives) discourage or distress us, the Alenu reminds us of our Vocation, calls upon us to reaffirm our Faith, and redirects our troubled thoughts toward a future of renewed hope.

[119] EVENING SERVICE / SABBATH & FESTIVALS
A PROPHETIC VISION OF THE FUTURE (Isaiah 2:2-4)

It shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the House of the Lord shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised above the hills; and all the nations shall flow to it.

And many peoples shall come and say: “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the House of the God of Jacob, so that we may be taught God’s ways, and walk in God’s paths.”

For out of Zion shall go forth Torah, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

The Lord shall judge between the nations, and shall decide for many peoples.

And they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

V’ne-emar, v’ha-ya Adonai l’meleḥ al kol ha-aretz, Ba-yom ha-hu yi-h’yeh Adonai eḥad u-sh’mo eḥad.

MAARIV / SHABBAT & REGALIM [120]
WE HOPE FOR THE DAY

I We therefore hope in You, O Lord our God, that we may soon behold the glory of Your might, when You will remove the abominations from the earth and when all idolatry will be abolished. We hope for the day when the world will be perfected under the sovereignty of the Almighty, and all humanity will call upon Your name; when You will turn unto Yourself all the wicked of the earth. May all the inhabitants of the world perceive and know that unto You every knee must bend, every tongue vow loyalty. Before You, O Lord our God, may they bow in worship, giving honor unto Your glorious name. May they all accept the yoke of Your rule; and may You rule over them speedily and forevermore. For sovereignty is Yours and to all eternity You will reign in glory. As it is written in Your Torah: The Lord shall reign for ever and ever. And it has been foretold: The Lord shall be Sovereign over all the earth; on that day the Lord shall be One and shall be acclaimed as One.

(M.S.—9)

BECAUSE WE BELIEVE IN YOU

II Because we believe in You, O God,
We hope for the day when Your majesty will prevail,
When all false gods will be removed,
And all idolatry will be abolished;
When the world will reflect the sovereignty of God,
When all humanity will invoke Your name,
And the wicked will be turned to You.
May all the living fervently acknowledge
That to You every knee must bend,
Every tongue vow loyalty.
Before You may all bow in reverence,
Proclaiming Your glory, accepting Your rule.
May Your reign come soon and last forever;
For sovereignty is Yours alone, now and evermore.
So is it written in Your Torah:
"The Lord shall reign for ever and ever."
The prophet too, proclaimed this promise:
"The Lord shall reign over all the earth;
On that day the Lord shall be One and shall be acclaimed as One."

EVENING SERVICE / SABBATH & FESTIVALS
Life, faith, and remembrance

To us, O Lord of life, You have entrusted Your spirit,
Fashioning us in Your image, and granting us Your gifts:

The power to create, the will to perfect,
The ability to dream, the capacity to love.

These are among Your priceless gifts to Your children,
To be used wisely on our earthly journey.

At journey’s end, our souls return
To You, O God, Source of life and love.

Comfort us, we pray; and deepen our faith
That with You each soul is reunited and loved.

In Your keeping are the souls of the living,
And the spirits of those who have passed on.

For it is from You that we come,
And it is to You that we return.

Our few years on earth are but a prologue
To the drama which continues beyond time.

This is the faith which sustains us at this hour
As we reaffirm the words of the Psalmist:

“Into Your hand we entrust our spirits,
You will redeem us, O Lord, God of truth.”

A HERITAGE OF MEMORIES

May the memories which we cherish
And lovingly now recall
Inspire us so to live
That we too may bequeath
A heritage of precious memories
To those whom we shall leave behind.

In tribute to our departed
May we enrich the lives we touch.
May we share and preserve the faith
Which our mourners will now affirm,
As they rise to sanctify God’s name
In the hallowed words of the Kaddish.
Before the Mourners Kaddish

I

Eternal God, who sends consolation to all sorrowing hearts, we turn to You for solace in our trying hour. Though bowed in grief at the passing of our loved ones, we reaffirm our faith in You. Help us, O Lord, to rise above our sorrow and to face the trials of life with courage. Give us insight in our time of grief, so that from the depths of our own suffering may come a deepened sympathy for all who are bereaved. May we feel the heartbreak of others and find our strength in helping them. May we bear our sorrow with trustful hearts, and knowing You are near, may we not despair. With faith in Your sustaining love, those who mourn now rise to sanctify Your name.

II

Almighty and Eternal God, in adversity as in joy, You are ever with us. As we recall with affection those who have been taken from our midst, we thank You for the example of their lives, for our years of companionship with them, for the cherished memories and the undying inspiration which they leave behind.

Comfort, we pray, all who mourn. Give them strength in their sorrow, and sustain their faith. In tribute to our departed, may our lives be consecrated to Your service. In solemn testimony to that unbroken faith which links the generations one to another, those who mourn now rise to sanctify Your holy name.

(M.S.—a.)

III

Eternal God, source of consolation and healing, Your children’s hearts are turned to You, in this hour of grief and remembrance.

Grant strength, O Lord, to all who mourn; sustain them in their sorrow. Help them to face the future with confidence and hope, even as they continue to honor the souls of their loved ones.

As we recall those taken from our midst, we offer our thanks—for the years which we shared, for the companionship which we enjoyed, for the love which we knew, and for the memories which we now treasure.

May we create living memorials to our departed through acts of kindness, of compassion, and of loyalty.

May all who mourn today find comfort in Your unfailing love, as they now rise to recite the hallowed words of the Kaddish.

MAARIV / SHABBAT & REGALIM [124]
Mourners' Kaddish

Magnified and sanctified be the great name of God, in the world created according to the Divine will. May God's sovereignty soon be established, in our lifetime and that of the entire House of Israel. And let us say: Amen.

Congregation and mourners:

May God's great name be praised to all eternity.

Mourners:

Hallowed and honored, extolled and exalted, adored and acclaimed be the name of the blessed Holy One, whose glory is above all the praises, hymns, and songs of adoration which human beings can utter. And let us say: Amen.

May God grant abundant peace and life to us and to all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

May God, who ordains harmony in the universe, grant peace to us and to all Israel. And let us say: Amen.

YIGDAL, a poetic summary of the Thirteen Principles of Faith, formulated by Maimonides (Commentary on the Mishnah, Sanhedrin 10:1), is believed to have been written by Daniel ben Judah, a fourteenth-century Italian poet.

1. God is Eternal; 2. God is One; 3. God is incorporeal; 4. God created the universe in time; 5. God alone is to be worshiped; 6. God revealed Divine truth to the prophets; 7. Moses was the greatest prophet; 8. The Torah is true; 9. The Torah is immutable; 10. God knows our thoughts and the future; 11. God rewards those who obey the Divine will and punishes those who transgress; 12. A Messiah will come; 13. God grants eternal life.

ADON OLAM

The Eternal Lord reigned alone
While yet the universe was naught;
When by Divine Will all things were wrought,
God's sovereign name was first known.

And when this all shall cease to be,
In dread splendor shall God yet reign;
God was, God is, God shall remain
In glorious eternity.

For God is one, no other shares
God's nature or uniqueness;
Unending and beginningless,
All strength is God's; all sway God bears.

Acclaim the living God to save,
My Rock while sorrow's toils endure,
My banner and my stronghold sure,
The cup of life whene'er I crave.

I place my soul within God's palm
Before I sleep as when I wake,
And though my body I forsake,
Rest in the Lord in fearless calm.

Israel Zangwill (adapted by Adina N. Samuelson)
